

Join Business Council of a Business Magazine to Boost Your Brand for Free

Christian Dillstrom – Global Business Influencer, Royal Strategic Advisor, and Editor-in-Chief of The TOP Person Business Magazines

Boost your personal and business brand easily and professionally by joining our Business Council for free. As a council member, you and your business will gain monthly visibility in global The TOP Person business magazines, viewed by over 10 million business readers per month. You will also receive powerful tools to make thousands of new people in your target audience become aware of you every month.

WHAT IS THE TOP PERSON?

The TOP Person is a global charity with a mission to help people, other charities, and organizations further themselves for free by increasing visibility.

We help over 1 million people and 50+ charities around the globe annually.

As of September 9th, 2021, we have 2,567 ambassadors from 125 countries with over 16.7 million followers in total.

The TOP Person ambassadors support social media posts we want with the help of our tailor-made, social media algorithm aware platform over 22.3 million times so far.

For example, my latest article received over 23 million views from business readers thanks to the support of our ambassadors.

As a result, it is not a big surprise that many LinkedIn posts we support are among the top 1% of most engaged posts on LinkedIn globally every day.

THE TOP PERSON MAGAZINE

Besides being very active and effective on LinkedIn and other social media, we also publish free business magazines to increase awareness of our mission.

So far, we have published 20 issues of our global and free The TOP Person business magazine as well as 6 free businesspeople ranking magazines.

Our magazine is viewed by over ten million business readers every month.

The articles of our free magazine are written by 66 authors, including people from The Wall Street Journal, Forbes, Business Insider business media, BBC, LinkedIn Influencers and TopVoices, as well as TED.

NOW WE ARE GOING LOCAL

We are now strengthening the local perspective on content of our business magazine. To achieve this, we are inviting interesting local businesspeople to join our Business Council.

Our council members will receive a question from us on a business topic via email a few times a month.

Members will answer the questions they want, and we will publish their views in our articles with their name, title, business, and location.

As a result, you will get constant attention of millions of businesspeople.

Participating is easy as email notifications will have a personal, secure link to an online form that you can fill out with your phone or computer.

That's all that is needed as we value your precious time.

You are also welcomed to publicly announce your Business Council membership on your social media profiles and elsewhere if you like.

FREE BUSINESS INTRODUCTION

Besides great visibility, the free, full-page introduction will also create you powerful tools to make thousands of new people in your target audience become aware of you every month.
